Summary of data provided by the West African Examinations Council National Office

The Liberia Senior High School Certificate Examination for school candidates (Grade 12), administered May 22 to 26, 2017:

- 31,212 candidates from 554 senior high schools registered for the examination (schools submitted all entries online).
- 31,009 candidates (99% of those registered) sat the examinations at 211 centers.*
- 53.43% of candidates who sat the examination were male; 46.57% were female.

Results:

- 17,981 students (58%) received a pass result; 12,138 candidates (39%) were unsuccessful.*
- 16 candidates (6 male and 10 female) achieved Division II results.
- Miss Marklyn W. Wingbah of Carver Mission School, Montserrado, achieved the highest score across the country.
- 108 (of the 554) high schools had a 100% pass rate.

Withheld LSHSCE results:

- 66 candidates' results are being withheld for examination malpractice (3 caught with cell phones; 34 caught with foreign materials; 1 attempted impersonation; 28 for other irregular activities).
- Results for 826 candidates from 5 schools are being withheld due to school debts to WAEC.
- 2 schools from Grand Gedeh county did not submit any school grades (continuous assessment scores) for 56 candidates.
